Dear Parents/Carers,

I wanted to write to you personally to introduce myself to you all. I am delighted to have started my role as Executive Headteacher and have been in school for some of the days this week. Children, staff and governors have been very welcoming and I hope to be able to meet some of you at the beginning and end of the day when I am in here.

Although I had already been working with senior leaders at St Oswalds as their School Improvement Partner, this new role is different and I will now have overall responsibility for teaching and learning at the academy. I cannot be in school full time, as I still have responsibility for St Laurence's in Coventry but I will attend St Oswalds every week. Mrs Geran has been doing a fantastic job as the new Head of School and will be responsible for the day to day running of the academy.

I am really passionate about teaching and want to reassure you that both Mrs Geran and myself will be working closely together with staff, governors and parents to ensure all children have the best possible education at your wonderful school.

Yours sincerely

Mrs M Cuskelly

Executive Headteacher
